Living Branches

The Gospel and second reading for this Fifth Sunday of Easter emphasize the need for us to remain in Christ, and he in us. This shared life finds expression in the image of the one vine and many branches. We become living branches of the vine, members of the Body of Christ through baptism, Eucharist, and confirmation, sacraments of sharing God’s own life. The First Letter of John describes the fruit of this vine as active love of neighbor: “And his commandment is this: we should believe . . . and love one another” (1 John 3:23).

Our first reading from Acts shows us an example of someone who shares in Christ’s life in the person of Saint Paul. Paul’s fearless witness, even at the risk of his life, is proof to everyone that the risen Lord’s Spirit truly fills him with life and is bearing fruit in him.

—St. Thérèse of Lisieux

Precious Blood Companions
Becoming a Companion is a wonderful way to strengthen your personal spirituality, be in relationship with the Missionaries of the Precious Blood and to meet others who share that calling with whom you can journey through life.

Lay women and men may become Precious Blood Companions if they are inspired by Precious Blood Spirituality and called to be in relationship with the Missionaries of the Precious Blood. This is a community that seeks to stand in the breach especially with those most in need, to offer hospitality and hope, to restore relationships, and to give voice and presence to the power of the Precious Blood that draws all people near.

The journey begins by attending an Information Meeting hosted by your local Companion group. You will be introduced to the history of the community and core values or charisms of the community. You will also learn more about Precious Blood Spirituality and what it means to be a Companion. If you are interested, you are invited to join local Companions group in the rectory of Most Holy Redeemer on Monday, May 14 at 7:00 pm.
