Fr. Matt's Message - Third Sunday of Lent

Jesus speaks to the outcast Samaritan woman very gently. He does not force his love or his message upon her. He even approaches her from a place of need, asking for a drink of water. His heart is open to her and he helps her to open her heart to him.

Jesus does not judge or condemn. The woman at the well feels only acceptance and understanding. Jesus sees her true self, someone deeply wounded by life and by a series of broken relationships. In the same way, Jesus sees us. Jesus sees our true selves, and neither judges nor condemns.

Christ met the woman where she was at. Christ meets us where we are at. He says to us just what he says to the woman at the well ... "If you only knew the gift God wants to give to you."

It doesn't do us much good to be loved for being perfect. We have a need to be accepted and loved as ourselves, often broken and wounded, thirsting for meaning and goodness in life. That is just where the Lord meets us, to offer us living water. The Lord then challenges us to go and share this great Good News!

LA Religious Education Congress

Several of our young adults, other parishioners, and I will be attending the annual Religious Education Congress in Los Angeles this weekend. Some 30,000-40,000 people attend this annual event, which serves as a time of enrichment, education, and renewal, as well as a time of reunion for those in all areas of ministries. I am always so happy to meet up with faithful friends and associates I have worked with in the past, or know from work and ministry.

Thanks for keeping all of us in your prayers as you remain in ours! Continued blessings on your Lenten journey,

Our second collection next weekend will go to the people of Ukraine. Thank you so much for your support.

God bless you!

Fr. Matt
