Fr. Matt's Message - Easter Sunday

I don't always sleep very well during these busy and full days leading up to a feast. Right now it is the fullness of these days of preparation that have been leading up to the joy of our celebration of the whole Easter season along with the excitement and eager anticipation of our celebration of the Triduum. Maybe it's also the Martha in me, a little anxious and worried, but mostly eager and excited, about many things. My thoughts have been happily racing with the events of these full and busy days.

Maybe Mary couldn't sleep, but for very different reasons. Mary's unrest came from the grief and sadness in her heart. It was early in the morning, still dark, when Jesus' beloved friend, Mary of Magdala, goes to the tomb. Mary goes as a seeker, needing closure and proof of what seems unbelievable – Jesus is dead? How can it be?

Desperately grieving, Mary longs to see her Lord.... Just as we feel when someone we love has died. We have that sense of unreality and disbelief, "I just can't believe they are really gone." But today we are reminded that Jesus and all of our loved ones are still alive! Yes, we will see them again! It is like a dream that we almost can't believe. One of the prayers we say at a Funeral Mass says, "Indeed for your faithful, Lord, life is changed, not ended, and when this earthly dwelling turns to dust, an eternal dwelling is made ready for them in heaven" (Eucharistic Prayer Preface I For the Dead – The hope of the resurrection in Christ).

Mary went to the tomb, looking for the dead Jesus. Through the miracle of Easter Mary finds the living Lord. But better yet, the living Lord finds her. Because, no matter where we are - maybe we are grieving, disillusioned, cynical, filled with grief, fear, worries, regrets, guilt or shame; God never stops calling us. God never loses sight of us. God never stops seeking us. When we get lost, it can actually be good to be still, to stop for a moment, and wait to be found. We might lose our way, but if we let him, God will always find us.

We gather on this Easter Sunday as family—we gather together to re-tell the stories of faith, to gather around and share a sacred meal, “in memory of Him, the one who loves us and saves us.”

Christ is our life. Christ is our light. “Receive the light of Christ!” No matter how dark and cold the tomb, we know the light of Christ will dispel any darkness we may encounter.

Mary said, “I have seen the Lord.” Let us hold these words of life close to our own hearts as we celebrate with joy these Easter days, today and these 50 days the Easter Season.

And may the Lord whom we have seen, shine from our eyes, to light the whole world with love!

I am grateful for each one of you and the joy you bring into my life.

Easter blessings of joy, light, love and peace,
Fr. Matt

Easter Day

The silver trumpets rang across the Dome:
The people knelt upon the ground with awe:
And borne upon the necks of men I saw,
Like some great God, the Holy Lord of Rome.
Priest-like, he wore a robe more white than foam,
And, king-like, swathed himself in royal red,
Three crowns of gold rose high upon his head:
In splendour and in light the Pope passed home.
My heart stole back across wide wastes of years
To One who wandered by a lonely sea,
And sought in vain for any place of rest:
'Foxes have holes, and every bird its nest.
I, only I, must wander wearily,
And bruise my feet, and drink wine salt with tears.'

—Oscar Wilde
